

Mary Travers Murphy

Mary Travers Murphy served as Orchard Park Town Supervisor from January 2006 to December 2009. Prior to that, Travers Murphy spent 19 years as a television news reporter at WKBW-TV, the last 17 of those years as the “Action 7” consumer news reporter.

As a highly decorated journalist, Travers Murphy is a multiple winner of the New York State Broadcasters Award for Outstanding News Coverage and won the 1989 Regional Investigative Reporting Award from the Radio Television News Directors Association. In addition, the United States Attorney for Western New York presented her with a Certificate of Merit in 1997 for her role in exposing telemarketing fraud in Western New York.

Travers Murphy was named Executive Director of the Family Justice Center in January 2010. Since taking over the unique collaboration of 13 service providers, the agency has opened a satellite office in Orchard Park to serve clients in the Southtowns. In February 2014 the FJC opened a second satellite office in Williamsville to assist clients in the Northtowns. The FJC’s website: www.fjcsafe.org
